NOTES ON THE READINGS

DEUTERONOMY 5:12-15: Here the Lord God provides a weekly, work-free holiday for his people. It was to be a holy day of rest for the whole household – parents and children, male and female servants, the beasts of burden and all foreign employees. The accent here is on the weekly commemoration of the liberation from slavery in Egypt by providing a time of rest and refreshment for their servants.

2 CORINTHIANS 4:5-12: St. Paul speaks explains how he and all Christ's ministers display the light of Christ to their hearers. He uses three graphic pictures of himself and them as preachers: God's creation of light out of darkness, treasure that has been hidden in a clay pot, and the clay lamps that provided light at night in the ancient world. Just as God spoke to create light our darkness, so he now speaks his word to shine the light of Christ in their hearts. Like humble clay lamps their mortal bodies contain the hidden treasure of Jesus and his all-surpassing power; like the oil in clay lamps which is expended to provide light, so the life-giving power of Jesus is displayed in their bodies as they share in Christ's death and resurrection.

MARK 2:23 – 3:6: Both these stories have to do with the Sabbath. When the Pharisees criticize Jesus for allowing his disciples to pick some wheat to eat on the Sabbath, Jesus recalls the provision of the most holy show bread by the high priest for David and his companions as if they too were priests in 1 Sam 21:1-6. Since Jesus is the new high priest as the Son of Man, he provides holy food for his disciples to show that he is the Lord of the Sabbath who fulfils it by what he says and does. In the second story he as the Lord of the Sabbath heals a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath with his word, so that he could once again be fit to do his daily work.

The funeral for Fay Tregenza will be held at Mattiske Funeral Chapel, 2 Wiltshire Street Salisbury, on Thursday 6th June at 10:30am. At the time of printing it is understood that Fay will be laid to rest in a family plot at the Dudley Park Cemetery. God's blessings and comfort to you all.

Did you vote NO to the Voice to Parliament? So did 72% of voters across Salisbury, Playford and Gawler. Although there were many and varied reasons for rejecting the proposal, a new book brings all the evidence explaining the result together, one varying recollection at a time.

Shakedown - Winning the Unwinnable Referendum (Rita Kuhlmann, 2024) gives a complete historic breakdown of events in just 7700 words, and a half dozen pictures.
